Who We Are

Vaaldrin Exports is a Bengaluru-based export company built on a simple but powerful idea — that the world deserves direct access to the finest, most authentic products India has to offer. We are not a trading intermediary. We are a hands-on, founder-led export partner with deep roots in South India's agricultural and artisan communities.

Our mission is to make sourcing from India seamless, transparent, and reliable for international buyers — whether you are placing your first trial order or scaling a long-standing procurement relationship. Every shipment we handle reflects our commitment to quality, compliance, and accountability.

Our Mission

To be the most trusted export bridge between India's producers and the world's buyers — delivering consistency, quality, and integrity in every transaction.

Our Promise

Transparent communication, compliance-first operations, and founder-level attention to every client relationship — regardless of order size.

Why Vaaldrin Exports

Six reasons why international buyers choose us as their trusted India sourcing partner.

Compliance-First Operations

Full documentation, traceability, and adherence to international export standards on every shipment.

Founder-Led Relationships

Direct access to decision-makers ensures accountability, responsiveness, and genuine partnership.

Flexible Order Quantities

Trial orders welcomed. We accommodate buyers at every scale — from first-time importers to established distributors.

Private Label & Custom Packaging

Custom packaging and private-label solutions tailored to your brand identity and market requirements.

Multi-Stage Quality Checks

Rigorous quality protocols at sourcing, processing, and pre-shipment stages — ensuring consistent product standards.

Ethical & Sustainable Sourcing

Direct relationships with farmers, cooperatives, and processors — supporting fair practices and traceable supply chains.

Our South India Sourcing Network

Vaaldrin Exports operates a direct sourcing network across four key states of South India — each contributing unique agricultural strengths and artisan capabilities to our product portfolio. Our on-ground presence enables quality control, traceability, and reliable supply throughout the year.

States We Source From

→ Karnataka	→ Kerala
Spices, coffee, millets, and fresh produce	Premium black pepper, cardamom, and coconut products
→ Andhra Pradesh	→ Tamil Nadu
Red chilli, turmeric, rice, and pulses	Handicrafts, textiles, and seasonal vegetables

- Our direct relationships with farmers, cooperatives, and processors ensure full traceability and consistent quality — from harvest to shipment.

What We Export

A curated portfolio of authentic Indian products spanning six major categories — each backed by direct sourcing, quality assurance, and export-ready packaging.

Premium Spices

Black Pepper, Turmeric, Cardamom, Cumin, Coriander, Red Chilli and more — our flagship category with the deepest sourcing network.

Grains & Rice

Basmati Rice, Non-Basmati Rice, Millets, Pulses, and Lentils sourced from certified processors across South India.

Fresh Vegetables

Onion, Potato, Drumsticks, Bitter Gourd, and seasonal produce — handled with cold-chain protocols for freshness.

Handicrafts & Artisan Goods

Wooden Crafts, Brass Décor, Handwoven Textiles, and traditional artisan products representing India's rich craft heritage.

Dry Fruits & Nuts

Cashews, Raisins, Figs, and Almonds — carefully graded and packaged for international retail and food service markets.

Herbal & Ayurvedic Products

Essential Oils, Dried Herbs, and Ayurvedic Powders — sourced from certified suppliers with full ingredient documentation.

Premium Spices Portfolio

Spices are the heart of Vaaldrin Exports. Sourced directly from Kerala's pepper estates, Karnataka's turmeric belts, and Andhra Pradesh's chilli farms — our spice portfolio represents the finest terroir India has to offer. Every batch is traceable, tested, and export-compliant.

Black Pepper

Malabar & Alleppey grades — bold, aromatic, and internationally certified

Turmeric

High-curcumin varieties from Erode and Sangli — vibrant colour and potency

Cardamom

Green cardamom from Kerala — premium grade, intense aroma

Red Chilli

Byadgi, Guntur & Teja varieties — heat, colour, and flavour profiles for every market

Cumin & Coriander

Whole and ground — clean, sorted, and moisture-controlled for export

Custom Blends

Tailored spice mixes and private-label blends for food processors and retailers

Our Quality & Compliance Approach

Every product we export passes through a structured multi-stage quality and compliance process. From supplier vetting to pre-shipment documentation, we maintain rigorous standards that meet the requirements of international import regulations, food safety authorities, and buyer specifications.

Our compliance-first approach means every shipment is accompanied by the correct documentation — including Certificates of Origin, Phytosanitary Certificates, and full traceability records — giving buyers confidence at customs and with their own quality teams.

Standards We Meet

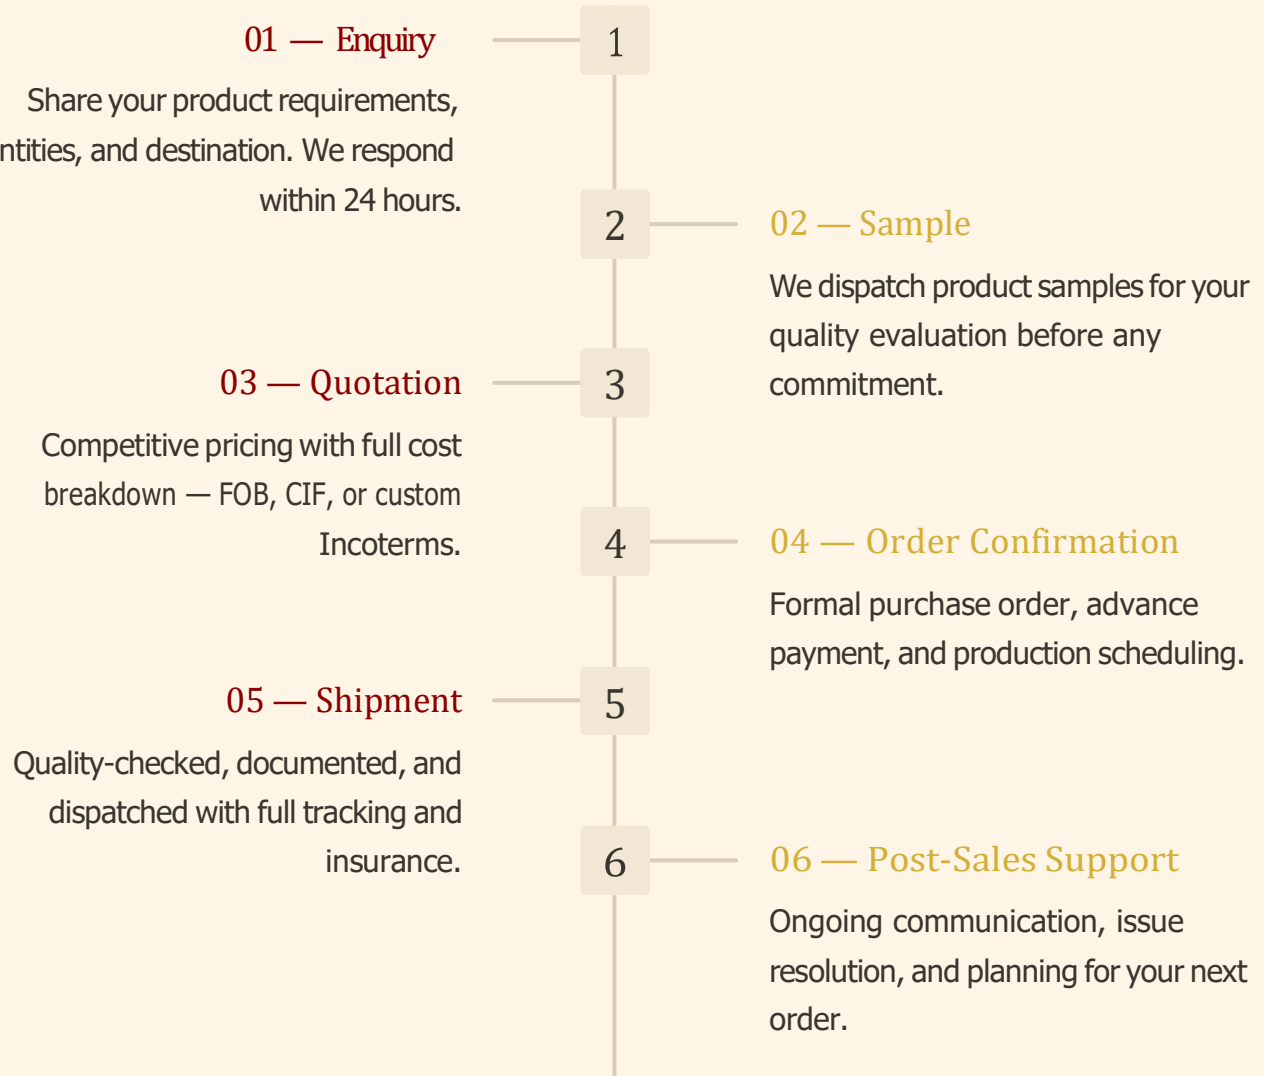

- FSSAI-compliant processing
- APEDA export registration
- Phytosanitary certification
- Customs and import documentation
- Buyer-specific quality protocols

What Buyers Receive

- Full batch traceability
- Lab test reports on request
- Pre-shipment inspection photos
- Export compliance documentation
- Post-shipment support

Our Export Process

Working with Vaaldrin Exports is straightforward. Whether you are placing a trial order or a recurring shipment, our process is designed to be transparent, responsive, and efficient at every stage.

Target Export Markets

Vaaldrin Exports is actively serving and expanding into six key international markets — each with distinct product preferences, regulatory environments, and long-term procurement potential. Our compliance-ready documentation and flexible logistics support make us a reliable partner across these regions.

United Arab Emirates

Spices, rice, dry fruits, and fresh vegetables — strong demand from retail and food service sectors.

United Kingdom

Premium spices, Ayurvedic products, and handicrafts — growing South Asian diaspora and gourmet markets.

Germany

Organic spices, millets, and herbal products — high compliance standards and quality-conscious buyers.

United States

Basmati rice, spices, dry fruits, and artisan goods — large Indian diaspora and ethnic food retail.

Singapore

Spices, grains, and processed foods — regional distribution hub for Southeast Asia.

South Africa

Spices, pulses, and fresh produce — established Indian community and growing food import sector.

Let Us Build Something Together

"We welcome trial orders and believe in building long-term relationships through transparency, responsiveness, and consistent quality."

Vaaldrin Exports is not a faceless trading company. We are a founder-led, relationship-driven export partner committed to your success.
